Actsafes Executive Director, Geoff Teoli Stepping Down October 5th

After five years of leading Actsafes, Geoff Teoli, will step down as Executive Director on October 5th, 2018. He will be joining the City of Vancouver's Engineering Department as the Head of the Film and Special Events Office.

Geoff leaves a legacy of strong leadership, team building and passionate commitment to Actsafes's health and safety mission. During his tenure, Geoff led Actsafes through significant innovation and growth, enhancing our organization's delivery of services and alignment to our member and stakeholder needs. He leaves Actsafes well poised for continued success, with a strong mandate through our stakeholder supported five-year strategic plan, a dedicated team, and healthy finances.

On behalf of the Board, our members and the Actsafes team, I thank Geoff for his dedication and contribution to Actsafes's success, and wish him all the best in his future endeavors!

Sincerely,
